

Williamstown.

Mrs. HIRSH MANTON and daughter, Miss Lizzie, were in town last week.

ARTHUR MARTIN, in the employ of Perry & Camp of Barre, has been vacationing at home.

OPHIS S. MARTIN has a wool clip this year of a thousand pounds or more, that will attract buyers of course.

JAMES S. ANNOTT will take a week's vacation here at home this month. M. Abbott will accompany him.

Mrs. ALMA P. BARR is visiting friends in Derby, having taken the pleasant way of going by private conveyance.

OLIVER MARTIN came home from Barre last Thursday night sick with dysentery. He was worse for delaying to tackle the disease, but is gaining now.

JAMES K. LYNDER has had a good trade this season. He wants to keep all the trade at home that he can. See if he can't make it an object for you, townsman, to buy here.

As there is to be a fall term of our village district school, the usual select school will likely be given up. There will be a delegation of pupils from here to Randolph, Barre, and perhaps elsewhere.

A NUMBER of our citizens are attributing material help in the cure of disease to Farr's liver pad. Rev. L. W. Wells is the Orange county agent for it. He knows that a sound liver is a real help to sound living.

OUR town is abundantly supplied with red raspberries this year. New potatoes, too, have done themselves honor this season. In fact, we fail to see hardly anything that comes out of the ground, that is not doing itself justice.

ELLEN A. FOLSON, one of our church women doing missionary service in India, writes of the curiosity her plane excites among the natives there, it being the first one in the place where she is laboring. We are glad our musical "picket-line" reaches so far eastward.

WE are glad that so many of our citizens could avail themselves of the excursion to Wells, N. H., last Saturday. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Burnham, Dr. E. C. Earle, Charles Edson, Quincy and Will Carpenter, Arthur Davenport and Myron Burnham.

A CRITIC thinks it worthy of note that at the recent anti-rail strike at Leavitt, Hayward's, where were gathered fifty to seventy-five men, he did not hear an oath, and for the first time in his experience at a raising. But ought it to be a wonder that in a place where so much of a thing is profane swearing, is not heard among us?

AMONG the portraits of the Catholic bishop of New York, which are on the walls of the St. John's church, is one of a young man, who is supposed to be the bishop's son, Ernest, who is now in the U. S. army, and is stationed at Fort Leavenworth.

Rev. L. W. Wells was lately in attendance upon the meetings at Old Orchard Beach, in Maine. He is a native of that place, and is a member of the church there.

Waterbury.

WILLIAM BUTLER, Mrs. Miles Grant and Miss Louise Hall of Boston are visitors at Dr. James'.

Mrs. A. H. BAKER of Montpelier has played the organ at the Congregational church since Miss Hall's departure.

THE "winter trees" on the common will need to be supplied with new bark and limbs before another season, or the pious fraud may be exposed.

JOSEPH MOODY of Sank Rapids, Minn., is visiting his brothers here. With Nathaniel, Eliza and George the scales kicked the beam at exceeding high a ton.

DAVID WARDEN of Minneapolis, formerly a clerk here, has been in town, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burleigh returned with him. On Tuesday, on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Warden.

ARTHUR MAHLE, George Lovely, Charley Rolfe, Dorwin and Edwin Cooley, and Malie Washburn started Monday morning for a hunting, fishing and camping excursion to Mount Mansfield.

TWENTY-FOUR guests at the hotel took an enjoyable hay rack ride, with Charley Keene handling the reins, to Bolton Tuesday of last week. It was a jolly time and a good dinner at Bishop's were enjoyed.

JAMES W. SLEETER shot a large hawk, last week. The bird measured three and one-half feet from tip of wing to tip of tail. The hawk was shot in the morning and was found dead.

MR. LUTHER DAVIS, family and friends had a picnic at the Falls. "Lute" is reported to have caught a duck while bobbing for black bass, and some ground tumbling from a hammock would seem also to indicate that he is not his friends go dry since his connection with the aqueduct was broken.

Mrs. MANNING and Mrs. Kennedy of St. Albans were thrown from a carriage near the depot Wednesday morning. Their horse took fright at a loose carriage on the common, and having unloaded the riders ran something like a mile without, however, inflicting any serious injury on himself or the vehicle. Mrs. Manning and Mrs. Kennedy received some bruising, but no bones were broken.

B. F. ARMISTEAD who had been engaged as principal of the village school for the ensuing year, having had a flattering offer from Cairo, Ill., was released from his engagement on his part by a satisfactory substitute, C. C. Davis of Northfield has been engaged to take Mr. Armistead's place. Mr. Davis is a teacher of several years' experience and is highly recommended by those who are familiar with his scholarship and his capacity as a teacher. He is a college graduate, and in addition to other desirable qualifications, has a wife and child. In this respect the village has made a great gain by change, and there is no reason to believe there is an offsetting loss. From all that is said of the new principal, it is confidently expected that he and his family will be a valuable and useful addition to the village.

MR. ARMISTEAD has resigned his position as principal of the Waterbury graded school to accept the office of superintendent of schools at Cairo, Ill. His salary the first year is $1,000, and there are eighteen teachers under him. Mr. Armistead is an experienced and successful teacher and will no doubt fill with credit his new position.

Northfield.

SHIRON BRIDGEMAN has been in town within the week.

Mrs. J. ELLIOT SMITH of New York is visiting at Dr. Nichols'.

ANSP-SHIRTSMAN begins Monday and closes Saturday of next week.

MISS WARDNER returned last Wednesday from her trip to Boston.

Mrs. GREGG has gone to St. Albans to visit a few weeks with her son.

COLONEL G. N. CARPENTER and Miss Hattie arrived Monday evening.

J. M. HOLTS and wife started Monday for a short trip to the lake.

REV. GEORGE WINCH preached at the Congregational church last Sunday evening.

C. S. RICHMOND and F. W. Dutton with their families visited friends in South Royton last week.

ESQUIRE FLEMING went to Watfield Monday by special master in a chancery hearing.

Mrs. J. H. ORCUTT and daughter went to Watfield last Thursday to visit for two or three weeks.

THE Congregational society will be at Dr. Mayo's this (Wednesday) evening. Ice cream and refreshments.

ON account of Mrs. Barney's lecture the Good Templars' hold their lodge meeting on Saturday evening this week.

Miss JAMES and two brothers from New York are stopping with L. A. Howe, and two Misses Lyman from Philadelphia at the Northfield house.

OPERATOR CLOUGH was recently ordered to St. John and is now stationed at Middlesex for a few weeks, his place here being filled by E. F. Beck.

The fall term of the graded school will open next Monday. A. B. Gray has been secured to take Mr. Davis' place in the grammar school and the choice is a good one.

FRANKIE O'NEILL, a ten-year-old son of Mr. Frank O'Neill, broke his left arm and dislocated the elbow at White River Junction. The family have returned home and the boy is doing well.

The Universalist society last week was unusually pleasant and successful. Miss Averill's readings added much to the enjoyment of the occasion, and the proceeds were nearly twenty-five dollars.

H. B. BROWN with his wife and daughters, Miss Mabel and Mrs. C. A. Edgerton, Jr., started last Wednesday for Ocean Grove, N. J., where they were to join Mrs. Brown's brother's family and remain two or three weeks.

Mrs. J. K. BARNY will speak on temperance at the Methodist church this week Friday evening at half-past seven o'clock. Mrs. Barny is well and favorably known in this town and will no doubt have a large and appreciative audience.

The Burlington Free Press says: "Mrs. Frank Plimley of Northfield is gaining quite a reputation as a poetess. Her contributions are seen almost monthly in the Democrat's Magazine, and occasionally in other magazines and papers."
